

SPRING WEDDINGS OF NOTE IN SOCIETY

Miss Ethel Roosevelt to Be Married to Dr. Rich- ard Derby on Friday

There was much crowded into Easter week by society, and it must be admitted that the little season does not meet with a great deal of encouragement. Had the Lenten period been observed with the true spirit of self-denial, then a season of dancing afterward would have been somewhat novel, but with almost continual dancing since the early part of January it was not to be expected that even the most enthusiastic would take part in various entertainments with that same freshness of spirit that characterizes the early part of the winter.

It was, moreover, unfortunate that so many entertainments for charitable purposes were crowded into one week, some of them conflicting as it happened. The date for Miss Holt's fête for the blind had been announced far in advance of that for a club on the East Side; but as it was there were many who went to both.

There are several weddings planned for this week, the one of widest interest being that of Miss Ethel Carow Roosevelt and Dr. Richard Derby, which will take place in Christ Church, Oyster Bay, L. I., on Friday at noon. On the of the General Theological Seminary, to Daniel Howland of Hope, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sawin Whiting of Boston have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Natalie Whiting, to Xavier Audibert of this city. Mr. Audibert was an usher at the recent wedding of Miss Viola Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Townsend, to Robert C. Winmill in St. Thomas's Church.

One of the weddings this week will be that of Miss Madeline Earl Wemple, a daughter of Mrs. Alonzo E. Wemple, to Frank E. Barnard, in the chapel of St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square, on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Hugh Birchhead of Emanuel Church, Baltimore, formerly rector of St. George's, will be the officiating clergyman.

The bride will have her sister, Mrs. Howard K. Coolidge, as her matron of honor and the other attendants will be Mrs. Henry A. Alker and Misses Gladys McAlpin, Adelaide Gardner and Helen R. Rich. William Brady will be the best man and the ushers chosen are Lyall Dean, Walter Eaton, David Goodenow and Guy Steeves.

After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's mother, 1 West Seventy-second street.

The wedding of Miss Jennet D. Blackwell, daughter of Mrs. Frank E. Blackwell, to James Harvey Williams will be celebrated on Thursday after-

Countess
Jean de la

day following in the Church of the Incarnation, Madison avenue and Thirty-fifth street, Miss Ruth Gardner Davis will be married to Theodore E. Steinway, for whom on Friday night Mrs. Hilborne Roosevelt will give a dinner and small dance. Dr. Derby and his bride will sail for Europe on Saturday, to remain the greater part of the summer.

The engagement was announced simultaneously in New York, London and Berlin on Monday of Mrs. Emily Taylor Symington of Baltimore to Korvetzkapfen Erich von Mueller, Naval Attache to the German Embassy in London. Mrs. Symington is the widow of E. Harris Symington of Baltimore and she is related to several men who have served in the army and navy with distinction. Her father was the late Col. D. Morgan Taylor, U. S. A., and the late Major Frank Taylor was her uncle. Two other uncles were the late Rear Admirals Harry Taylor and Robley D. Evans, U. S. N. The marriage will take place in Baden Baden, Germany, early in July. Mrs. Symington has been visiting relatives in Atlanta, Ga.

An engagement recently announced was that of Miss Mildred Van Schaick, daughter of Mrs. John Van Schaick of this city and Huntington, L. I., to Arthur T. Gwynne, son of the Rev. Dr. Walter Gwynne and Mrs. Gwynne of Summit, N. J. No date has been set for the wedding.

At a dinner given recently by Rutgers Hecquet Jewett at his house, 789 Madison avenue, the engagement was announced of Miss Katharine Stanley, daughter of the late Dr. E. H. Jewett noon at the home of her mother, 32 West Seventy-fifth street.

Miss Blackwell will have her sister, Mrs. Francis W. Frost, as her matron of honor and Miss Beatrix Blackwell, a niece of the bride, will be the flower girl. Earl T. Williams, brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man and the ushers will be Frank E. Blackwell, Robert S. Crocker, Reginald E. Wigham, Raymond S. Baldwin, Bruce M. Falconer of this city and Robert P. Kernan of Utica, N. Y. There will be a small reception after the ceremony.

Christ Church, the little Episcopal edifice in Oyster Bay, L. I., will be the scene at noon on Friday of one of the most interesting of the early spring weddings when Miss Ethel Carow Roosevelt, a daughter of Col. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, becomes the bride of Dr. Richard Derby of this city. Several guests from this city, Washington and the neighboring Long Island colonies will be present for the ceremony and reception to follow at Sagamore Hill, the home of Col. and Mrs. Roosevelt. The Rev. Roland Cotton Smith of Washington and the Rev. Endicott Peabody, head of Groton School, Groton, Mass., will be the officiating clergymen.

There will be an elaborate musical programme for the wedding ceremony and reception, which will be followed by a seated breakfast. Naham Frank's orchestra will play.

Miss Roosevelt will have as her at-
